

Besides Facebook reviews and emails we receive weekly, here are a few of our travelers.

Nancy CA

I always travel independently with friends and have never done a tour before. I really can't think of even one thing I would complain about India, it went very smoothly all the way through. I was impressed by how organized the trip was, but flexible. There were a few times when the trips option shifted slightly based on the groups interest. I appreciated that, since I am used to planning my own trips and liked having an option for some input. I'm still friends on Facebook with a number of the women.

Pat NC I really enjoyed the Italy Cooking trip a couple of years ago. And the added bonus, made new and lasting friends.

Diane Ohio Had a great trip to South Africa. This was the first time I traveled with a solo women's group. Everything was first class and well planned.

Mary NY As a first timer, all I can say is WOW! Phyllis put together a great group of women and we all enjoyed a week of beautification, healthy eating, fitness classes, walking, talking, shopping and now I'm feeling refreshed.

Kay NJ Just returned from an awesome trip of my lifetime to Iran!Accommodations and itinerary were wonderful. The mix of women on sas intelligent professionals and quite congenial. This was my first trip with the group and would highly recommend any woman to utilize this group.

Sanjuana TX I was very pleased with the organization, and the coordination, impressed with how smoothly everything ran. The choice of places was awesome, and the stops we made were always equipped with western toilets. Very important! I have shown my pictures to more than one native of India, and the question is always how long were you there? They are amazed to find out we saw so many places in such a short time! Last , but not least I felt safe at all times. Mrs. Parveen's knowledge of her country inspires confidence, and she is a very pleasant and approachable person. I would do the trip again if time and money were not an issue!

Ellen NY The trip to Mexico was wonderful.

We were fortunate to have a group of 6 woman who instantly bonded and by the end of the trip we had made wonderful friendships. Our guide Sergio was excellent and the trip was well planned,the hotels and restaurants were very good .I liked that the trip was active and the cooler weather was a nice benefit. Although I've been to Mexico several times I never experienced the history and culture as I did on this trip. I would not hesitate to recommend this trip to anyone looking to experience Mexico.

Ann PA Our trip was amazing in every way. Our group immediately bonded and by the end of the week, we felt like sisters. Our guide in Oaxaca, Sergio, was charismatic, knowledgeable and passionate in conveying the rich history of the area. The accommodations and restaurant choices were excellent. We particularly enjoyed the cooking class with Mexico's Top Chef, Rodolfo Castellanos. I had never been to Mexico and found this trip to be a truly spiritual experience in every way. My sister had been to Oaxaca 15 years ago with a group of students, but she, too, felt this trip was very special. She even had the chance to re-visit the Oaxaca Children's Center, Centro de Esperanza Infantil, and sponsored another student who she was actually able to meet in person. This was meaningful for her as well. What started as a group of strangers is now a group of friends and we hope to see and stay in touch with each other. We all cried when we had to say good-bye at the airport.

Joyce NY The week I spent at the spa in Ixtapan was awesome. The weather was perfect, the food was great and the service was terrific. I met some very interesting women and had some well needed pampering. This was my second time traveling with this group and my experience was great.

Lauren FL Thanks you so much for allowing my mother and I the opportunity to have a wonderful experience together in Mexico. It has relit my passion for travel experiences! We enjoyed the women on the trip and I will happily share your business information with friends and family!

Kathryn CT Christmas in Paris" was spectacular -- and happily memorable!

Cathy ME have traveled several times with The Women's Travel Group. The tours are always fabulous, well planned with just the right amount of free time. Phyllis provides an amazing compliment of excellent itinerary, knowledgeable guides, beautiful scenery, great hotels and dining experiences. Always a terrific value. The group sizes are perfect! Come join the fun with other like minded travelers!

Katherine NY I have been on 2 trips to Mexico with the Group in the last 22 months (Ixtapan and the Mayan ruins in Tulum, Chichen Itza and surrounding areas) and what a fabulous tour Phyllis puts together!! It is so convenient that she finds wonderful hotels that offer rooms for single at a minimal cost.... any single woman out there looking to travel, I would highly recommend going with this group!! I only wish I had more time to travel!! Fantastic trips!!

Isabelle FL have traveled several times with The Women's Travel Group. The tours are always fabulous, well planned with just the right amount of free time. Phyllis provides an amazing compliment of excellent itinerary, knowledgeable guides, beautiful scenery, great hotels and dining experiences. Always a terrific value. The group sizes are perfect! Come join the fun with other like minded travelers!

Gloria NJ Traveling to Namibia was my first trip with this group. It was fantastic...itinerary was excellent as well as the accommodations. I'm already looking at future trips with this group!

Kathryn MA I have gone to Ixtapan three times. This year it was like returning to summer camp and seeing old friends again. It is a wonderful winter getaway, and Phyllis plans everything so well, and is always there to give advise and guidance. I am planning another trip with Phyllis to Europe for a cruise on the Rhine this summer, my 4th with her group. That is a recommendation in itself. I wouldn't hesitate to recommend Phyllis for anyone looking for a well planned trip, you can always expect the very best.
