Day 02: Saturday Oct8 22 – Alberobello, Locorotondo & Cisternino (BL)

After breakfast, start our exploration of Val d'Itria. We visit Locorotondo and Cisternino and pass beautiful villages, vineyards, and olive trees. Locorotondo is considered one of the most beautiful villages in Italy. Here, the town is the main sight. It is a pleasant place for wandering, taking photographs, and sitting at cafe tables. The historic part of town is circular perched on top of a hill. It's a whitewashed maze of little lanes lined with historic buildings, some humble and faded, others rather grand with baroque archways and architectural details. Cisternino is a small charming old town intact for centuries with white houses, narrow streets, little churches, and an elegant central piazza and panoramic viewpoints to appreciate the countryside, rolling hills, dry stone walls and Trulli roofs piercing green fields. We have a wine and cheese tasting followed by a farmer lunch in a beautiful Masseria, from here we see the green olives and the blue of the Adriatic sea. Return to Alberobello where there is time to explore on our own. Alberobello is a fascinating place to visit, above all because of the Trulli, the traditional dome-shaped buildings made from local stone. The town is surrounded by olive groves and vineyards typical of the Puglia region. Trulli is a word that derives from the Greek “tholos” (“dome”).

Each whitewashed “trullo” is built without lime or cement and has a conical roof on the outside, which is dome-shaped inside and consists of a square central compartment that connects through arcades with the kitchen and other rooms. Overnight in Alberobello.

Day 03: Sunday, Oct 9 22 – Ostuni, Polignano & Monopoli (B L)

Today, visit Ostuni, Polignano & Monopoli. Ostuni, perched on three hills 700 feet above sea level, is known as the “White Town”, thanks to characteristic whitewashed houses of its historic center, a tradition kept. The fifteenth-century Romanesque-Gothic Cathedral dominates, with a façade sporting a 24-ray rose window of rare beauty. The small town of Polignano enjoys a spectacular position. Placed approximately 50 miles south of Bari and erected on the edge of a rocky gorge, the town is one of the most ancient establishments in Puglia and was populated by serial invaders from the Huns to the Normans. People come to view the crashing waves, visit the caves, and check out the panifici (bakery) in the atmospheric historical center. In Monopoli, we experience the “PaeseVecchio” as the locals call the heart of the town, where we find an unusual concentration of cultural heritage and churches, one next to another. We find small and charming homes, once inhabited by heroic fishermen and farmers, whose children are still dedicated to producing great wines. Walking among the narrow streets, between arches and alleys, feel the sea air and fragrances of fresh tomato sauce cooked for hours. Overnight in Alberobello

Day 04: Monday, Oct 10 22 – Matera - Sorrento (BD)

From natural cavities carved by wind and rain to the first man-made caves, we discover how easy it was to shape the limestone of the Sassi rock. Hence there are real underground dwellings, in the belly of Mother Earth. A woven structure that has intrigued experts has also discovered how it was possible to live in the absence of running water. Matera is a World Heritage Site. We walk through the beautiful streets and traffic-free squares and enjoy the most picturesque alleys. We have free time for lunch before continuing to Sorrento, arriving by late afternoon. Overnight in Sorrento. Enjoy a 3-course dinner with wine in a local restaurant. Accommodation: Hotel Regina
