Day 02 Amman / Madaba / Mt. Nebo / Kerak / Petra - Hotel BLD

The morning is dedicated to the sites of Madaba and Mt. Nebo. Madaba, a small town at the head of the ancient King's Highway (40 minutes from Amman), is covered with fantastic mosaics from the Byzantine era. Many are located in private homes, discovered when owners dug foundations or gardens. At St. George's Cathedral, we see the most famous of all - a clearly-labeled mosaic map of Jerusalem and the surrounding areas dated 560 A.D., which helped archaeologists to identify important sites in Jordan. Mt. Nebo is west of Madaba, on a cliff overlooking the Jordan Valley and Dead Sea. Long believed to be the burial place of Moses, Mount Nebo has impressive mosaics and other remains 4-6 A.D. churches, monasteries and hermitages, now maintained by Franciscan priests living nearby. Continue further south to the village of Kerak, Lunch at local restaurant in the city followed by a visit to the famous castle It lies in the biblical land of Moab and was a Moabite stronghold long before the Crusaders built the castle for which it is famous today. Although it was not the first crusader's castle to be built east of Jordan, its strength and location made Kerak the most important defenses guarding the Latin Kingdom's exposed eastern flank. End the visit then transfer directly to the hotel in Petra.
